STANDING COMMITTEE OF EUROPEAN DOCTORS

REGISTRATION FORM

“Doctors going digital: How to future-proof skills”

20 November 2020, 9:00-12:00, via livestream

Joint conference of the Standing Committee of European Doctors and the German Medical Association

To play an active role in the conference, e.g. to contribute to the discussion or pose questions (via chat, audio, video or telephone on the event platform), you must register prior to the conference. As an alternative, you can follow the conference on the German Medical Association's homepage (www.bundesärztekammer.de). The conference will be held in English.

All registrants will receive a link to the conference platform in the week leading up to the event. Please contact the German Medical Association's Department for International Affairs with any questions at +49 (0) 30 / 40 04 56 – 361 or international@baek.de.
